

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION.

Whereas, Portions of our State were, in October last, visited by fire, producing great destruction of property and in many instances loss of life ; and

Whereas, Many of our citizens were great sufferers by the devastations of this terrible fiend, being stripped of all their worldly effects, placing them in a condition of want and dependence ; and

Whereas, Lieut. General Sheridan, by his prompt and timely aid to our people, through His Excellency Gov. Baldwin, of two thousand pairs of blankets, four hundred men's overcoats, and one thousand pairs of men's socks, relieved much distress among our unfortunate and suffering people ; therefore,

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION in regard to the "Chicago Relief Bill," now pending before the Congress of the United States.

Whereas, The lumber interest of the State of Michigan is one of very great importance, directly to a large number of our citizens, and indirectly to the whole commonwealth ;

And whereas, There is now pending before Congress a bill known as the "Chicago Relief Bill," which discriminates unjustly against this branch of Michigan industry ;

And whereas, The said lumber interest has suffered as seriously by the late fires, in proportion to the capital invested, as has the city of Chicago ; therefore

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That our Senators in Congress be instructed, and our Representatives requested, to use all proper means to prevent said "Chicago Relief Bill" from becoming a law, and the Governor is hereby requested to furnish each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress with certified copies of this concurrent resolution.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION in relation to the proposed ship canal around Niagara Falls.

Whereas, The annual products of the States bordering upon and tributary to the northern lakes are largely in excess at the present time (and are rapidly increasing) of the capacity for transportation of all the avenues to the Eastern States and the seaboard, demonstrating the necessity of enlarged water facilities for communication between the West and the East; and

Whereas, The State of Michigan is deeply interested in the matter of opening a cheaper and more expeditious mode of transportation by water than now exists between this State and the Atlantic seaboard;

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That Congress be requested to make an appropriation, either in money or land, as soon as can be done consistently with the best interests of the country, for the construction of a ship canal around Niagara Falls, from Lake Erie to Lake Ontario, upon the best, cheapest, and safest plan, capable of transferring vessels of not less than two thousand tons burthen, in the most expeditious manner practicable.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS.

[No. 7.]

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION.

Whereas, During the fall of eighteen hundred and seventy-one, the people of the State of Michigan suffered unparalleled loss of property and life in the northern portions of this State by reason of the severity of the unprecedented autumnal fires ;

And whereas, Large quantities of provisions, clothing, and liberal sums of money, amounting in the aggregate to three-fourths of a million of dollars, were generously donated with princely munificence, Christian benevolence, and commendable alacrity, not only by the people of this and sister States, but from foreign provinces and beyond the ocean ;

And whereas, These lavish contributions were taken in charge, distributed, and dispensed with judgment, integrity, and dispatch, in a faithful and impartial manner, often to the serious detriment of their own private interests, by the State relief committees appointed by the Governor, at Detroit and Grand Rapids, and the various collecting and distributing sub-committees throughout the State ;

And whereas, The various railroad and express companies of our own and other States and provinces, and certain vessel-owners, carried these benevolent contributions of a sympathetic people to their several places of destination ; and the telegraph companies throughout the land transmitted messages with care and dispatch, all without charge or cost to the donors or recipients ; therefore ;

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That the thanks of the people of the State of Michigan, through this Legislature, are hereby freely tendered to the various committees who have so kindly given their time, talents, and means to alleviate the distresses of those who were sufferers by this great calamity ; also, to the several railroad, express, and telegraph companies and vessel-owners who neglected no opportunity to further this great charity ; and lastly, to the generous donors of this great bounty, whose lavish contributions were more than sufficient to relieve the wants of eighteen thousand homeless and destitute people.

Resolved, That this Legislature heartily commend and approve the official action of Governor Baldwin in this matter, and reiterate the thanks of the people of this State, so feelingly expressed to the people of other States and provinces, in his proclamation of January ninth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.
